

Happy Summer Reading

You get to read 3 books this summer. You will need to read A fictional book, a non fiction book, and a book of choice (try something different, a graphic novel, mystery or adventure book). Then complete the three book reports. One for each book. These books can come from a local library, from Myon or from other online reading sources like epic or Prime Reading.

Parents, we will write down your child's reading level but you may need to help them log into myon on a device at home to see it if they lose their reading survey. Copies of the three book reports are also available online.
